

COGNITIVE STIMULATION THERAPY

- For people with mild cognitive impairment or dementia
- Internationally recognised and research based
- A group designed to stimulate the working mind
- As effective as medications designed for this purpose
- Set in a relaxed environment where people have fun

Where

Karori Community Centre behind the Library.

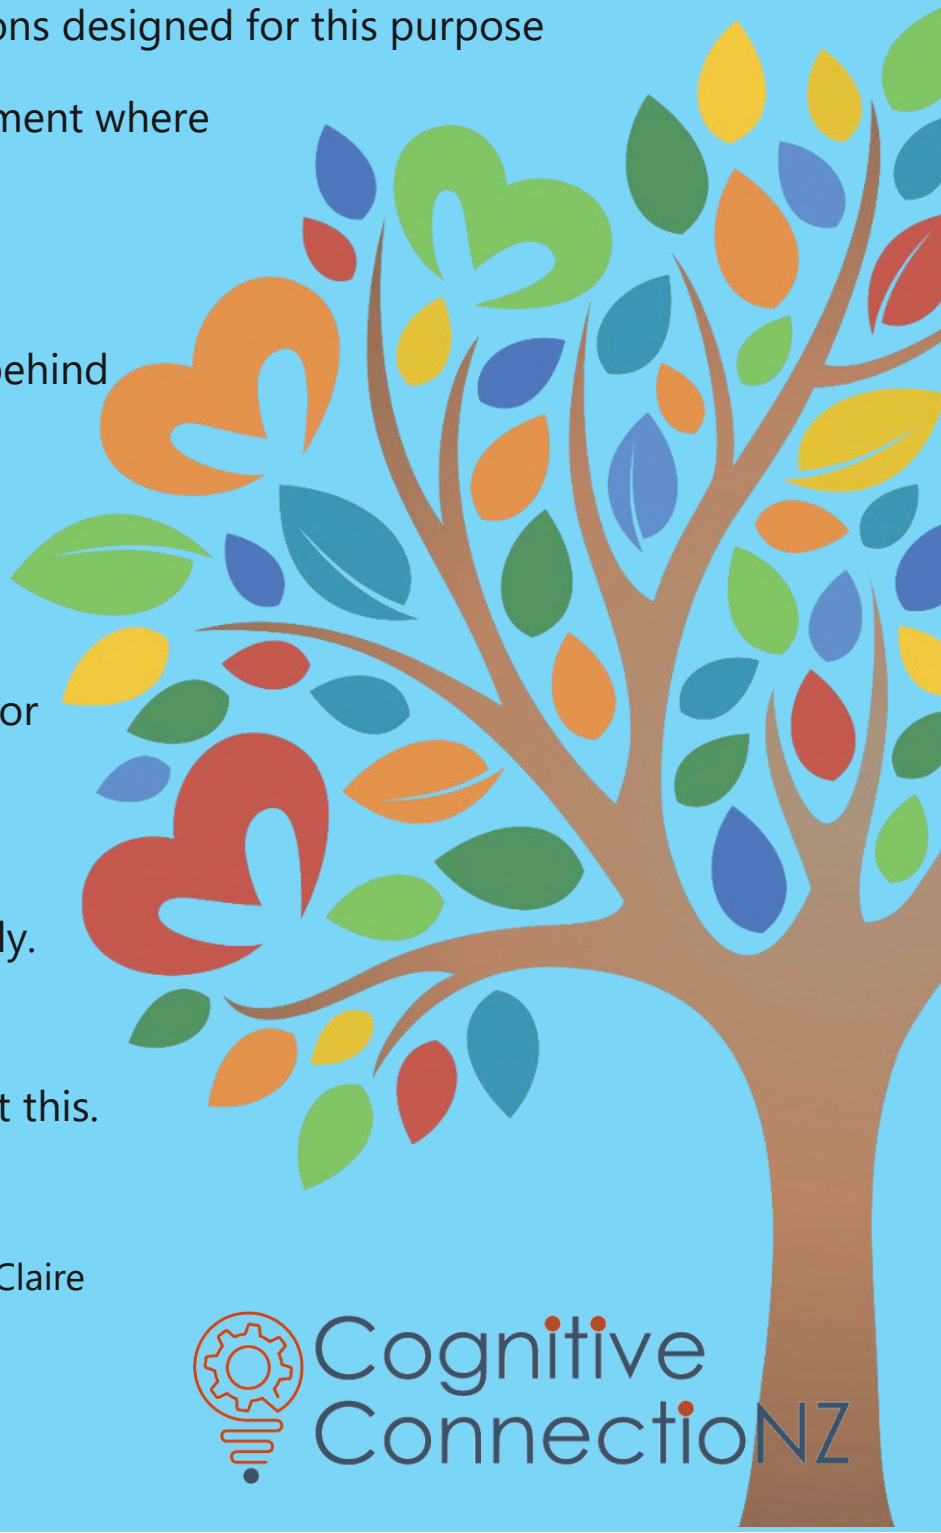

When

Starts 15 October from 10:30am to 11:30am on Tuesday's and Thursday's, for seven weeks.

Cost

$20 per session twice weekly.

You may qualify for some MOH funding. Ask us about this.

For further information please call Claire or Liz on 0272663287 or email cogconnectionz@gmail.com

www.cognitiveconnectionNZ.co.nz